

Spannung pur: Handewitter SV empfängt die JSG Fredenbeck-Stade!

Die wJB vom Handewitter SV trifft am Samstag in der Wikinghalle auf die JSG Fredenbeck-Stade. Spannung garantiert!

Wikinghalle, Handewitt, Deutschland - Handewitter SV's wJB team gears up for a critical final match in the first half of the Bundesliga season against JSG Fredenbeck-Stade this Saturday at 14:00 in the Wikinghalle. Coach Svea Lundelius-Linde acknowledges her team's performance has been inconsistent, stating, "We need to improve our scoring efficiency." Currently, Handewitt sits in second place with 6:2 points, tied with leaders Grün-Weiß Schwerin, indicating the high stakes as they aim to solidify their position for the championship round.

The JSG Fredenbeck-Stade, with 3:5 points, is closely trailing in fourth place, having fought hard in every match they've played. For Handewitter to secure a spot in the Meisterrunde, maintaining their second-place ranking is essential, with only the top two teams guaranteed a chance at the German Championship. The match promises to be thrilling, with free entry for children under 12 and tickets for adults priced at just 3 euros, making it an attractive outing for local fans. Details are available in einem umfassenden Bericht auf www.tnssports.de.

Details
Ort	Wikinghalle, Handewitt, Deutschland

Besuchen Sie uns auf: n-ag.de